1. Community Guidelines

Welcome to SoccerYou!

At SoccerYou, you can build promising connections and meet users who can give your career a real boost.

We want SoccerYou to be a safe and successful digital platform where everyone can be authentic and show their talent to the world. That's what these community guidelines are for – they define how everyone should behave, both on and off the platform. Please read carefully, because violating these guidelines can have consequences – from a warning to being banned from SoccerYou.

2. SoccerYou Rules:

- 1. Respect boundaries. We do not allow nudity, sexual content, sexual requests, or the search for sex on user profiles. This also applies to the internal SoccerYou messaging system. SoccerYou is a digital hub for talents, scouts, and clubs. The platform aims to help users connect and move forward in their careers.
- 2. Be careful with your data. Sharing your personal banking information or email password is always a bad idea. Don't ask others to send you personal information either.
- 3. No violent content. We promote positivity and do not tolerate violent content showing or describing cruelty, death, weapons, or anything that encourages or glorifies self-harm. If we believe there is an immediate risk, we may take action to help, such as contacting crisis intervention services directly.
- 4. Make personal and professional connections, but no advertising. It's not allowed to advertise products, services, or projects within SoccerYou, to request donations, or to try gaining new followers for social media accounts.
- 5. Always communicate respectfully. Talking to strangers can be difficult, especially when people come from different backgrounds. Respectful communication is the best path to success. If a conversation gets uncomfortable and you feel upset, take a deep breath and think before responding. Harassment, threats, bullying, intimidation, doxing, blackmail, or any intentional harm to others is strictly forbidden.
SoccerYou is not a place for hate. We do not tolerate racism, bigotry, hate, or violence of any kind. Who someone is, how they identify, or what they look like should never matter. This includes ethnicity, religion, disability, appearance, gender, gender identity, age, nationality, or sexual orientation. If you see someone breaking these rules, please report it immediately.
- 6. Be kind, not aggressive. Any actions or behaviors that could harm another user – online or offline, real or digital – are taken very seriously. That includes calls for or incitement to any form of psychological or physical violence. Contact us if you need help.
- 7. Minimum age: 15 years. You must provide an email address and be at least 15 years old to register and use SoccerYou.
- 8. Follow the law. Illegal content and unauthorized activities are strictly forbidden. That means you may not buy or sell drugs or counterfeit goods on SoccerYou, or ask for help with illegal activities.
We absolutely do not tolerate anyone using SoccerYou to harm minors or engage in human trafficking, whether directly, jointly with others, or by approving such actions.

9. Post your own content. Do not post pictures or private messages of others unless you have their consent. Do not post anything protected by copyright or trademark unless you are authorized to do so.
10. Be an honest member of the SoccerYou community. Do not misuse SoccerYou. Do not spread false or misleading information. Do not send harmful links or spam. Do not try to manipulate, scam, or pressure others into sending you money or anything else. Do not use third-party apps to unlock features or cheat the system.

3. Report

As a member of the SoccerYou community, we encourage you to reach out to us if something doesn't feel right. If someone is causing you harm, making you feel uncomfortable, or violating our Community Guidelines – report it. Your report will always be treated confidentially. By reporting someone to us, you help us stop harmful behavior and protect others.

4. Consequences

We take our Community Guidelines and the impact they have on our community very seriously. We do everything we can to ensure they are respected. We have implemented a warning system, but if violations persist or if a violation is severe, we will take appropriate action.

We reserve the right to investigate and/or close profiles without refunding any purchases if we determine that you are misusing or have misused the platform, or if you have behaved in a way that SoccerYou considers inappropriate, unlawful, or in violation of our Community Guidelines or Terms of Use. This also includes actions or communications that take place outside of the platform but involve third parties you have met through SoccerYou.
